

CELEBRATING GROWTH

Inova Loudoun Foundation recognizes ER expansion — and other key events

The Inova Loudoun Hospital (ILH) Foundation hosted a number of events this past fall to celebrate the powerful impact of philanthropy on our community. These events included a “brick-breaking” ceremony on Sept. 7 to kick off the renovation and expansion of the award-winning Lansdowne Campus Emergency Room (see article on pages 6-7 of this issue for more information).

The new facility will be named the Inova Virts Miller Family Emergency and Trauma Center at Inova Loudoun Hospital in recognition of a $2 million leadership gift given by Sharon Virts and Scott Miller. Sharon and Scott “broke bricks” on the ER expansion with the assistance of hospital staff, community leaders and fellow donors, including Commonwealth Emergency Physicians, Mike and Teresa Wheeler, The Ladies Board of Inova Loudoun Hospital, David and Amy Bosserman, Cindy and Rick Chambers, the Frederickson family, the McMunn family, Patrick Walters, James and Rebecca McDermott, Stacey Miller, and John and Patti Sinnen.

Top: Campaign donors celebrate the kick-off of the ER renovation at the Sept. 7 “brick-breaking” ceremony at Inova Loudoun Hospital.

Center: Jill McCabe, MD (Medical Director, Pediatric Emergency Room); Sharon Virts (Founder and Chairman, FCI Federal; Trustee, Inova Loudoun Hospital Foundation; and Women 100 Luncheon Co-Chair); Peter Arundel (Owner, Virginia News Group) and Kristina Bouweiri (President and CEO, Reston Limousine; Trustee, Inova Loudoun Hospital Foundation and Women 100 Luncheon Co-Chair) attend the Loudoun Times-Mirror Women 100 Luncheon, sponsored by the Inova Loudoun Hospital Foundation.

Bottom right: Music therapist Tom Sweitzer (Executive Director, A Place To Be) introduces patients from Inova Loudoun Hospital’s stroke choir, Different Strokes for Different Folks, as they perform at the 2016 Inova Summit at Salamander Resort & Spa.

